Name the Relationship

Test taking strategies for analogies

Name _____ Date _____

Teaching point

Name the link in the first pair. Keep the words in the same order.
Say the link in a sentence. Use that sentence to test the next pair.

Common relationships

Opposites	scarce and plentiful
Similar meanings	brief and short
Tool to purpose	thermometer measures temperature
Contents to container	a letter goes in an envelope
Member to category	a violin is a kind of instrument
Product to maker	a mural is made by an artist
Person to workplace	a librarian works in a library
Person to action	an editor revises

Watch me think hammer is to tool as chair is to _____

○ legs ○ comfortable ○ cushion ○ furniture

I notice A hammer is a kind of tool. The member comes first.

I test A chair has legs. Is a chair a kind of leg?

I check A chair is a kind of furniture. The link stays the same.

Try it instrument is to violin as vehicle is to _____ ○ road ○ bus ○ driver ○ wheel

Which comes first this time? Name the link and write it for both pairs.

Thank you, brain.

What helped you keep the words in order?